Long Beach Chamber of Commerce to Honor Boeing as Holthouse Carlin & Van Trigt “Corporate Citizen of the Year”

The Long Beach Area Chamber of Commerce is honoring The Boeing Company as Holthouse Carlin & Van Trigt’s Corporate Citizen of the Year. The award is presented to a company with a strong history of employee volunteerism and social responsibilities.

Boeing’s sustained involvement and long-term investment in the Long Beach community are important elements of its corporate culture and an integral part of the way it does business. The company’s goal is nothing less than to enable the development of communities so that their citizenry is educated, creative, civic-minded, environmentally-conscious, healthy and economically self-sustained.

Since 2005, Boeing has contributed more than $4.8 million in grants within the Long Beach area. Its leaders serve on the boards of numerous local organizations and its employees are actively involved in volunteer and other outreach activities.

In a city blessed with a large number of civic-minded employers, Boeing is a true standout. Boeing employees at every level are active throughout the community – every year.” said Long Beach Chamber Immediate Past Chairman of the Board and Partner of Holthouse Carlin & Van Trigt LLP, Blake Christian.

The award will be presented at The Chamber’s “City National Bank Entrepreneur of the Year Luncheon” on Thursday, May 6, 2010, at the Hyatt Long Beach. Networking and business exposition starts at 10:00 a.m. Awards program will begin at 11:30 a.m. and feature keynote speaker, Kevin Dunigan from City National Bank. Other major sponsors of the event are: Long Beach Memorial Medical Center/Miller Children’s Hospital, Long Beach City College and Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

Individual tickets for the event are $45. Pricing includes parking. Contact Sarah Nguyen at (562) 432-7830 or snguyen@lbchamber.com for additional sponsorship opportunities, tribute ads and/or event information. Attendees may register online at www.lbchamber.com until May 1st.
