Douglas Andersen Joins HCVT to Lead HCVT State and Local Tax Practice

Los Angeles, CA. June 22, 2020 - The partners of HCVT are pleased to announce that Douglas H. Andersen has joined HCVT to lead the firm's State and Local Tax Practice. Doug brings extensive Big 4 and private industry experience to the firm. Most recently, he led Deloitte's multistate tax practice in the Pacific Northwest. In his leadership role at Deloitte, Doug advised public and private corporate clients with a focus on multistate tax accounting, reporting, and planning. Additionally, his experience includes tax audit defense, large-scale restructuring, and state tax return review projects. He also served as the national leader for the multistate ASC 740 competency group that developed capabilities to address complex state income tax provision reporting issues. Doug has deep experience in the technology industry sector that he gained while serving as Deloitte's national technology industry sector leader for multistate taxes and as a tax director at Expedia.

Doug began his career in public accounting at Deloitte. He is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a bachelor's in accounting and a master's in taxation from Brigham Young University.
