Blake Christian, Tax Partner HCVT
Honored By Long Beach Chamber of Commerce
Chick-fil-A 2016 Community Spirit Award

Long Beach, CA. April 28, 2016– The Long Beach Chamber of Commerce presented the Chick-fil-A 2016 Community Spirit Award to Blake Christian, tax partner at HCVT, the fifth largest CPA firm based in Los Angeles. Blake is the seventh recipient of this award which recognizes business leaders who have demonstrated a consistent commitment to community involvement. The award was presented by John Howard, owner/operator of an independent Chick-fil-A franchise in the Long Beach Towne Center. Blake opened the firm's Long Beach office nearly 25 years ago. Blake has served as the past chairperson of the Long Beach Area Chamber of Commerce and is an active Long Beach Rotary member and a member of the Long Beach Foundation. He sits on four corporate boards and serves as an advisor to three other organizations. Blake commitment to the community is further extended by his involvement with Plant LB, a church planning organization, and the National Ability Center.
