

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Carol Carlile

(714) 361-7658

carol.carlile@hcv.com

HCVT PROMOTES FIVE PARTNERS AND THREE PRINCIPALS

Los Angeles, CA. January 23, 2018 – The partners of Holthouse Carlin & Van Trigt LLP (HCVT) are pleased to announce that Kayla Hong, Jonathan Siao, Stephanie Wilkinson, Stacy Yamanishi, and Doris Yau, were admitted to the partnership effective January 1, 2018.

Kayla Hong, tax partner, is based in the firm's Pasadena office and provides tax consulting and compliance services to clients across a broad spectrum of industry sectors. She is a member of the firm's Mergers & Acquisition tax practice. Before joining HCVT, Kayla served in the M&A tax practice at other Big 4 accounting firms.

Jonathan Siao, tax partner, is based in Encino and has more than 15 years of experience serving a variety of public and private companies. He provides tax advisory and compliance services for professional service companies, opportunity funds, high net-worth individuals and real estate businesses - including the affordable housing industry sector.

Stephanie Wilkinson, tax partner, has over 12 years of experience and specializes in providing tax consulting and compliance services to tax-exempt organizations and is based in the firm's Westlake Village office. She serves a variety of §501 (c) (3) organizations including private foundations and public charities. Stephanie began her career in public accounting at HCVT.

Stacy Yamanishi, tax partner, is based in the firm's Long Beach office and began her career in public accounting at HCVT. Stacy specializes in providing tax consulting, compliance and wealth transfer services to high net worth individuals and families.

Doris Yau, tax partner, has over 14 years of experience providing tax compliance and consulting services to clients in the entertainment industry and joined HCVT from PwC. Doris has extensive experience in partnership taxation and evaluates the tax complexities associated with waterfall arrangements and partnership income allocation.

The firm also announced that Blake Borkovitz, based in the firm's Westlake Village office was promoted to tax principal, Ryan Partridge, based in the firm's Long Beach office was promoted to tax principal and Russell Dunbar, based in the firm's Camarillo office, was promoted to audit principal.

About HCVT:

The firm provides tax, audit and assurance, business management, and mergers & acquisition services to private companies, closely-held businesses, public companies and high net worth individuals and family offices. HCVT provides audit services to privately held businesses, funds, and employee benefit plans. The team consists of over 550 members, including over 100 partners and principals. HCVT serves its clients from eight offices in Southern California and offices in Northern California, Fort Worth, Texas and Park City, Utah. The firm is highly specialized and focuses on specific industries and market niches. To learn more about HCVT, see www.hcv.com.