Martina began her career in public accounting at HCVT. She specializes in providing tax consulting and compliance services to clients in the private equity and entertainment industry sectors. Martina is experienced in assisting her private equity clients, which primarily consist of fund entities and alternative investment funds, in understanding the tax reporting requirements and addressing the tax issues associated with fund formation, asset acquisition, and fund liquidation. Martina's entertainment clients include motion picture and scripted and unscripted TV production companies. She offers experience in assisting her entertainment clients with such tax issues as film basis amortization, network advanced funding and participation tax treatment, deferred revenue, state filing requirements, and state tax credit treatment.

Martina graduated from the California State University, Northridge, summa cum laude, with a bachelor's degree in accounting. She is a Certified Public Accountant in California and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
