Asset protection and value preservation—objectives of high net worth individuals and families. You worked hard to accumulate your wealth, but face the challenges of understanding how best to protect what you have worked so hard to achieve. Navigating the increasingly complex tax environment, structuring asset holdings and transactions, making sure assets are protected and appropriately insured, passing on your legacy, giving to causes that are important to you, are just some of the challenges you face. Our tax, business management, and audit teams understand the issues and risks that impact you and your assets. We provide services that are integrated and aligned with your goals. We work together to address the complexity in your life.

High Net Worth Individual tax planning and compliance

Tax planning is not a once a year activity. We believe that tax planning occurs real time and year round. When changes occur within your asset holdings, we evaluate the tax implications in its entirety—to you, your business, your investments, your real estate holdings, your estate and your overall financial objectives. We work with individuals and family offices that hold foreign assets and assist in structuring and complying with new regulatory requirements. More than providing tax returns, we provide guidance and insight to help you achieve your goals.

Family Office and Business Management

Our Business Management team helps protect assets and preserve value by providing a concierge approach to client service—tailored to your unique needs. We understand that individuals and family offices with complex asset holdings require more than just bill paying services, they require an integrated team to help plan and execute long-term goals. Often viewed as your gatekeeper, we help to make complex transactions less complicated. Working with high profile clients, we understand the importance of confidentiality and trust. Our track record of growth validates the skills and experience of our team.
