Ben has over 18 years of public accounting experience providing tax compliance and consulting services to private equity sector clients, as well as clients in venture capital, hedge funds, fund-of-funds, and investment management. Ben is involved in all facets of tax compliance and consulting, including project planning and management, income tax accounting, and technical research. He is highly experienced serving clients with complex international investment portfolios and diverse domestic and foreign investor bases. He has extensive experience advising clients on investment fund structuring and reorganizations, tax-efficient business operational strategies, tax considerations of partnership agreements, and partnership allocation and distribution modeling. Ben has assisted his clients with all phases of the tax controversy lifecycle, including prevention, efficient management, and favorable resolution of tax audits and disputes at the federal and state level.

Ben began his career in public accounting at Arthur Andersen and was also with Deloitte and BDO. He is a graduate of Miami University and holds a bachelor's degree in accountancy.
