Jane specializes in providing international tax consulting and compliance services and has extensive experience with inbound and outbound international tax issues for domestic and foreign individuals, corporations, and partnerships. Jane's clients include high net worth individuals, closely-held businesses, and private equity organizations.

Jane has experience addressing issues for U.S. clients investing abroad and foreign clients doing business in the United States. She is knowledgeable in a wide variety of international tax planning and compliance issues including subpart F, GILTI, foreign tax credits, tax treaty analysis, PFIC and immigration planning, FATCA implementation, and FBAR compliance. She has extensive experience with reporting for investments outside the U.S., including foreign filings (Forms 5471, 8865, 8858, 8621) and U.S. withholding and reporting requirements for non-US persons investing in the U.S.

Before joining HCVT's International Tax practice, she worked at BDO in their Core Tax Services group, where she has developed an in-depth knowledge of federal and state tax compliance and planning.
