Rosalinda joined the firm as part of the merger of Dreyer, Robbins & Associates into HCVT in January 2019. Rosalinda has over 30 years of combined public accounting and private industry experience. Throughout her career and continuing at HCVT, she has a wide breadth of experience with providing tax reporting, planning, and representation services for high net worth and ultra-high net worth individuals and families, closely-held entities, partnerships, corporations, public charities, and private foundations.

Rosalinda's substantial private industry experience involved the formation and management of tax departments at two major public and privately held real estate companies. She directed and conducted all aspects of taxes for these companies and their subsidiary and affiliated entities, as well as their respective chief executive officers/owners.

Rosalinda began her career in public accounting at Arthur Andersen. She is a graduate of the University of Southern California and a Certified Public Accountant in the state of California.
